CASE NO: 8:18-CV-01208

HONORABLE ANDREW J. GUILFORD

DEFENDANT HAPPY STATE BANK
DBA GOLDSTAR TRUST COMPANY'S OBJECTIONS TO DECLARATION OF KOLETTE A. PAGE

HEARING

Date: December 3, 2018

Time: 10:00 am

Courtroom: 10D

Complaint Filed: July 9, 2018

Trial Date: None Set

DECLARATION STATEMENT	OBJECTIONS
“Matthew told me that all FIP investors used GoldStar so I did not have a choice” K. Page Declaration ¶ 20.	Hearsay. FRE, Rules 802, 805. The statement is based on the alleged representation of a third party regarding GoldStar and is therefore inadmissible hearsay. Lacks foundation. FRE, Rule 602. The statement is not within declarant’s personal knowledge and is based on the alleged representation of a third party regarding GoldStar. The statement is also contradicted by Paragraph 18 of the K. Page Declaration, which acknowledges that Ms. Page “followed Matthew’s instructions and signed where he indicated” because she “trusted” Mr. Bieser. Irrelevant. FRE, Rules 401, 403. The statement as to what other investors did is not relevant whether the Court has personal jurisdiction in this case.
“In order to fund policy premiums, GoldStar sold some of my FIP securities and distributed money from my IRA to my bank...” K. Page Declaration ¶ 22.	Lacks foundation. FRE, Rule 602. The statement is not within the declarant’s personal knowledge and is in fact contradicted by Paragraph 37 of the Complaint, which acknowledges that “Plaintiffs took taxable distribution from their IRAs to pay the premiums on the Minnesota Life Permanent Insurance Policies.” Paragraph 37 of the Complaint is also corroborated by Paragraph 24 of the K. Page Declaration,

	which acknowledges “[t]his is in fact what I did.”
“I received a letter from FIP stating that it was ceasing operations due to...and from GoldStar failing to ‘keep partner’ with FIP.” K. Page Declaration ¶ 26.	Hearsay. FRE, Rules 802, 805. The statement is based on the alleged representation of a third party regarding GoldStar and is therefore inadmissible hearsay. Lacks foundation. FRE, Rule 602. The statement is based on the alleged representation of a third party regarding GoldStar and Plaintiff therefore lacks foundation. Irrelevant. FRE, Rules 401, 403. The statement as to what another party said regarding GoldStar is not relevant whether the Court has personal jurisdiction in this case.
